

"It Was a Dark and Stormy Night"

written and performed by Five Iron Frenzy

Intro:

Dmaj7, F#min, Dmaj7, F#min, E

Dmaj7, F#min, Dmaj7, F#min, E, D, C#

1st verse:

F#m A E C#7

It was a dark and stormy night last night. Bitter dark.

F#m A E B

Rain fell in torrents. Stabbing its ghosts through the cold, and straight through our hearts.

Chorus:

D E F#m

I've been waiting in half-hearted sleep

E/G# A E/G# B

for a promise I half-meant to keep.

A/C# D E F#m

Just for hoping that hope still flies.

E/G# A E/G# B

Wipe the sleep out of our sleeping eyes.

Half-time rock extravaganza: F#m,A,B

2nd verse:

F#m A E D C#

Fog that is lifting, the specter of dreams we once had, speaks into the night

F#m A E B

Slumber is over, sunlight is streaming through, come into the light.

2nd chorus is the same as the first.

Repeat the intro chords but skip the D and go straight to C# the second time through.

Bridge:

C D C#m C D C#m

I know hope has not forgotten me, I know I'm waking from the longest dream

F#m Am Bm C D Am Bm C D E

I know, I know, I know, I know

Last chorus is different:

D Bm

I've been waiting in half-hearted sleep

D Bm

for a promise I half-meant to keep.

D A

Just for hoping that hope still flies.

F#m D Bm

Wipe the sleep out of our sleeping eyes.

F#m D Bm F#m D Bm F#

And hope still flies, and hope still flies, and hope still flies.
